The Upper Lake though smaller has far grander scenery than the other lakes of Killarney. It is studded with numerous small islands, and encircled by mountains covered with glorious foliage, rising abruptly from the waters edge, the whole forming a most beautiful and delightful panorama. It covers an extent of 480 acres and it is from 2½ to 3 miles long.

My dear Minnie. So sorry you got no answer. I was at Barnes only returned Monday morning your P. C. Many thanks I hoped to have called ere this but I seem busy each morning I do not think your Aunt Rose seems well. Has your Mother been going after Flatt. I hope she is better. I can't hear anything Nazer is engaged to. I hope you are all right. Love to you from
